Contest Develops in But One Council Race in City

FIVE NOMINATIONS MADE.

Councilman Barnett Has Opposition in the Third Ward.

Nominated.

John J. Metcalfe
Walter S. Harned
Frank W. Dabney
Wm. H. Draper
Wiley A. P'Pool.

Yesterday was found by the law to be the day for closing nominations for the Democratic ward primaries July 17. In only one ward was there more than one candidate and nominations were accordingly made by the committee, acting as a convention, in the other five wards. The following candidates, being without opposition, were nominated:

Nominees.

First ward—John J. Metcalfe.
Second ward—W. S. Harned.
Fourth ward—F. W. Dabney.
Sixth ward—Wm. H. Draper.
Seventh ward—W. A. P'Pool.

All of these will be new men, the present Councilmen declining to stand for re-election. Mr. Dabney served several years as councilman and was mayor from 1893 to 1901. Mr. P'Pool also served one term as councilman in 1893.

Councilman N. A. Barnett, who is serving his first term, is the only member of the present council who is a candidate for re-election. His opponents are Herbert L. Hayden, who was a candidate for the nomination in his former race and H. C. Hoore.

In drawing for position on the ballot yesterday Mr. Barnett got first place.

Dr. G. H. Grace, of Kirksmansville, is tipped for the Democratic nomination for representative from Todd county.

HAMLETT EASY WINNER

McCreary's Nomination is Undisputed with Majority of at Least 30,000 Assured.

TWO RACES IN DOUBT.

McDermott Will Probably Defeat Edwards for Lieutenant Governor By Few Votes.

KENTUCKY DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

United States Senator—Ollie M. James, Marion.
Governor—James B. McCreary, Richmond.
Lieutenant Governor—E. J. McDermott of Jefferson county, still in doubt.
Treasurer—Tom S. Rhea, Russellville.
Auditor—Ruby Laffoon, Madisonville, still in doubt.
Secretary of State C. F. Creelius, Falmouth.
Superintendent of Public Instruction—Barksdale Hamlett, Hopkinsville.
Attorney General, James Garnett, Columbia.
Commissioner of Agriculture—J. W. Newman, Versailles.
Clerk of the Court of the Appeals Robert L. Greene, Frankfort.

Louisville, Ky., July 3.—With 25 counties of the Ninth and Eleventh districts yet to be heard from, the democratic nominations in Saturday's primaries for lieutenant governor and auditor are still in doubt.

Laffoon is leading for auditor by 3,711 votes at 2 o'clock Monday morning, while Edwards for lieutenant governor is only 147 ahead of McDermott. There are enough counties to be heard from to yet make either of these races in doubt.

McDermott, it is believed, will nose out over Edwards, while Laffoon of Madisonville is expected to increase his lead in the counties which will report Monday morning.

There is no doubt but that James B. McCreary, aged 75 years, Richmond, former colonel in the confederate army, member of the legislature, congressman, governor and United States senator, will be the Democratic standard bearer in the November election in Kentucky. His majority at this hour estimated may reach it to 33,000.

SEPARATOR BURNED
Will Dudley Heavy Loser From Fire Near Pembroke.

A separator belonging to Mr. Will Dudley, of near Pembroke, was destroyed by fire Friday morning. Mr. Dudley was threshing wheat for Mr. John Hale on his farm on the Tobacco road. The fire started from a spark from the engine in the straw rack, and the separator caught on this. The engine was hitched to the separator three times to draw it away from the burning stack, but the chain pulled loose every time before the machine could be moved.

Several minor fires have been reported, owing to the extreme dryness of the weather.

CONSUMPTION
Causes Death of Promising Youth.

Frank Roper, aged twenty, youngest son of Mr. Emory A. Roper, died Sunday night at the home of his parents on East Nineteenth street. He had been in bad health for quite a while, but was only confined to his bed about two weeks. Death was caused by consumption. His funeral services will be held at the residence at 9 o'clock this morning and the interment will take place at Riverside Cemetery.

Pembroke Depot.
A force of men is at work making changes about the local freight depot. The platform at the east end has been torn away and another is being constructed at the west end. New doors are being made, as well as other interior changes.—Journal.

TUBERCULOSIS
Causes Death After a Long Illness.

Jesup G. Boyd died Saturday night at the home of his mother, Mrs. Mollie H. Boyd, on South Clay street, of tuberculosis, aged 28 years. He was a native of Trigg county and a son of the late Curtis G. Boyd, who was for some years engaged in the mercantile business at Canton. Mr. Boyd had been in declining health for several years and was confined to his bed about six months. Besides his mother, two brothers and one sister survive. The interment took place at Riverside Cemetery Sunday afternoon.

GREAT SUCCESS
Was Surgical Operation Performed by Dr. Perkins.

Cooper Weeks, the youth whose hand was mutilated by the explosion of a dynamite cap two weeks ago, is out and getting along satisfactorily. The amputation of the mangled thumb and three fingers on the left hand, was done by Dr. T. W. Perkins. The operation was a difficult one, as the boy's hand was terribly torn, and complications were feared at first.

Rival for Ananias.
Cannelton, Ind., June 30.—A curious lightning freak occurred during an electric storm which swept over the village of Rome, near here. At an old fashioned tavern kept for many years by Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Cannelton, a bolt struck the building, shattering the dining room windows and blowing the engraving from the fireplace, leaving the frame intact, but exposing the original design of the picture. The wall paper back of the frame which was left hanging, and Mr. Cannelton were unscathed for several hours.

Think Of It!
